DEMENTIA AWARENESS

2014 is the year we are talking about Dementia awareness, you might have seen the national campaign advert on TV of the lady singing the Beatles song "With a little help from my friends".

She is not an actor, but she is a nurse who has been diagnosed with early onset Alzheimer's. This is a condition that will in some way most likely impact on each and everyone of us, it could be a relative, a neighbour, work colleague or friend. Shropshire Council is encouraging as many people as possible to become a Dementia Friend, with one hours training produced by the Alzheimer's Society.

If there are sufficient people interested in the Parish we can arrange for the training to be carried out in the Village Hall. The local Government jargon talks about building community resilience and the public and the press talk about the lack of care in the public sector, whether that is nursing or social services. Bring those two together alongside public funding cuts and it becomes clear that it cannot just be the state who has to care, it also has to be us, and that is what is meant by community resilience.

I have had the training and I can say it gave me an insight into how frightening and lonely it might be if people around me do not understand, and so the next time I am rushing through the supermarket on my way home after a day at work I will remember not to sigh or roll my eyes in exasperation when the person in front of me cannot remember the card number or count the correct money required, they may be suffering from the early form of dementia.

POLICE WARNING

Elderly residents are being warned about a phone fraud where victims are being duped out of cash by people posing as police. West Mercia and Warwickshire Police have recorded 70 of these offences across Worcestershire, Herefordshire, Shropshire and Warwickshire since March this year with unsuspecting victims falling for the scam. The offenders are targeting older people across both Forces, as part of a national scam which is commonly known as a 'courier fraud'. In many cases a person claiming to be a police officer will contact an elderly or vulnerable victim by telephone and inform them that their bank card has been used fraudulently. The victim will then be tricked into thinking they are either calling or being put through to their bank, but in fact they are still speaking to the fraudsters. The victim will then disclose banking information and will be instructed to either place their bank cards in an envelope for a courier to collect or attend the local branch of their bank to withdraw a sum of money and pass it to a courier sent by fraudsters. Sometimes the fraudsters use legitimate Taxi companies to make the pick up. Over the last couple of months, the number of offences has escalated, with West Mercia and Warwickshire Police receiving numerous reports from victims across both Force areas. Detectives are working with local banks/buildings societies and taxi firms as part of the investigation into the fraud and are urging anyone else who may have been a victim to come forward. They are also repeating warnings to the public, particularly older residents, not to go along with the scam and to report any attempts to police. This is a national problem which has reached West Mercia & Warwickshire policing areas.
