Art Exhibition – St Andrew’s Church - Stanton

Thank you to everyone who supported the Art Exhibition in the Church in early October. A total of £643.14 was made which will help with the upkeep of this beautiful historic building. It costs around £1000 per month to keep our church open and we do not receive any funds from the Church of England towards the building’s upkeep.

It was lovely to see so many people enjoying the display of wonderful talent we have in our local community and meeting together in a social setting.

Many people helped to make the weekend a success and our grateful thanks go to you all. Particular thanks go to Waters Upton Art Group for their advice and loan of equipment, RAF Shawbury for the loan of display boards, the Coop in Shawbury for the donation of refreshment items, everyone who baked and donated cakes, Pete Dowell for clearing the path and Carolyn Smith for giving generously of her time and energy.

Finally, thank you to all the local artists whose work made the exhibition a success.

Bev

September Ride and Stride

Around the Churches of North Shropshire

I would like to thank all the people who sponsored me. I walked five miles in very hot sunshine. I raised £572.00 in aid of St Andrews church / Shropshire Historic Churches Trust. 50% of the monies to both charities.

Ralph Prince

Well done Ralph on another excellent effort.. Ed

Remembrance

We will be holding a short act of remembrance on Saturday 11 November 2023 starting at 10.50am. All welcome. The act of remembrance will again take place outside (weather permitting) around the lych gate. The lych gate at the church was erected in 1921 a permanent memorial to those who had died in the first world war. The names of those from the parish who lost their lives in the first world war are shown on a tablet on one of the walls inside the gate. Following the second world war another tablet was erected on the other wall with the names of those who died in the second world war.

Thanks

Vanessa

Did You Know....that 100 years ago in November 1923— The Eternal flame lit for the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier under the Arc de Triomphe in Paris. Garrett Morgan patents his traffic signal design, an important development in automobile safety. The USSR adopts experimental calendar, with 5-day "weeks". Beer Hall Putsch's in Munich; Nazis fail to overthrow government, 16 die and Adolf Hitler flees and subsequently arrested. The Rentenmark replaces the Papiermark as the official currency of Germany at the exchange rate of one Rentenmark to One Trillion Papiermark,

CHARITY DONATION FRAUD

Current world conflicts inevitably lead to humanitarian crises on both sides as ordinary citizens suffer from injuries, a shortage of essential supplies and other hardships. So, it is inevitable that once again unscrupulous cybercriminals will be ready to exploit the situation, with online scams and malware related to various 'appeals, and taking advantage of people's genuine good nature.

This happened in previous situations such as the Ukraine war, earthquakes and many weather-related disasters around the world.

Most fundraising appeals are fortunately genuine, so the risk of fraud should not put you off giving to charities. However, you should be vigilant and make sure you are giving safely to legitimate organisations.

So before donating online, on the phone or in person:

- Check the charity name and registration number at uk/checkcharity.
- Check the Fundraising Regulator's online Directory to see if a charity has committed to good fundraising practice at org.uk/directory.
- If you are still unsure about giving, always ask the organisation for more information. Legitimate causes will be happy to respond and answer your questions.
- Always beware of unsolicited phone calls asking for charitable donations, as many can be fraudulent

Fundraising appeals with generic wording, such as 'to help earthquake victims' should be approached with caution, and an appeal should always be clear on exactly what the money will be used for.

When giving online, make sure the charity is genuine before giving any financial information:

- Type in the charity website address yourself, rather than clicking on a link, and look for the registered charity number on the website.
- Don't click on the links or attachments in suspicious emails.
- Never respond to unsolicited messages or calls that ask for your personal or financial details.
- Beware of any online advertisements that just feature a mobile number.
- Ignore requests to donate through a money transfer company as this is a popular scam.
- Only donate to online fundraising pages created by a person or organisation you know and trust. If in any doubt, contact the charity directly.

When you meet a fundraiser in-person, check their credentials:

- Street collectors should wear an ID badge that is clearly visible.
 - Any collection buckets should be sealed and undamaged. Most fundraising materials should feature a charity's name, registration number and a land-line phone number.
 - Beware of handing over any bank details if asked to sign up to a Direct Debit donation
 - If in doubt, ask for more information – a genuine fundraiser should be happy to answer your questions.
- Please feel free to share these messages with any vulnerable friends, relatives or neighbours.
